Laraway staff to present at Children's Literacy Foundation (CLiF) Conference

Julie Landry, M.Ed., Director of Laraway School, will present a workshop on "Emotional and Learning Challenges" at the CLiF Conference for Rural Librarians to held at the Hotel Coolidge in White River Junction on Friday, September 18th.

"I'm excited about our partnership with CliF and the opportunity to speak with librarians about this population of students," Landry said.

CLiF is an independent non-profit organization founded in 1998. Its mission is to nurture a love of reading and writing among low-income, at-risk, and rural children in New Hampshire and Vermont. For more information, visit clifonline.org or email clif@clifonline.org.

Laraway Youth & Family Services is a non-profit organization dedicated to identifying and building on the strengths of children and youth with emotional, behavioral and mental health challenges, through alternative education, therapeutic foster care and public school based behavioral intervention supports.
