Matt Hill joins Laraway Board of Trustees

Matt Hill has joined Laraway's Board of Trustees. Hill, a Vermont native, worked for the Vermont Department of Labor and was elected to the Vermont State Legislature in 2016. He maintains particular interest in improving workforce development. He's a carpenter and realtor who also loves basketball, having participated as a player, coach and referee.

"I have personally seen the great work Laraway has done for the community and have always been proud of the good work they do in my hometown of Johnson, and across Vermont," Hill said. "It is my privilege and honor to serve an organization that has positively impacted the lives of so many children and youth over the years."

Laraway Youth & Family Services is a non-profit organization dedicated to identifying and building on the strengths of children and youth with emotional, behavioral and mental health challenges, through alternative education, therapeutic foster care, therapy and public school based behavioral intervention supports.
