Laraway receives Vermont Community Foundation Grant

Laraway Youth & Family Services received a $1,500 grant from the Vermont Community Foundation's Small and Inspiring grant program. The grant allows Laraway to partner with River Arts to provide unique, hands-on art activities in River Arts' studio space.

"This experience will provide a unique opportunity for our clients to access creative programming that would otherwise not be available to them," said Laraway staffer Tim Birmingham. "Our clients will engage in activities that will help them access their creative minds and work together to have fun while exploring a new level of learning."

Through its Small and Inspiring grant program, the Vermont Community Foundation hopes to help foster the spark and hope that keeps Vermonters healthy and happy by finding and supporting projects in every town in Vermont where a small grant can make a big difference.

Laraway responds to the needs of at-risk kids and their families by offering innovative, strength-based services through alternative education, therapeutic foster care, and public school based support programs. For more information, please visit www.laraway.org.
